

NÉZŐPONT INTÉZET

Call for Scholarship Application

Nézőpont Intézet Foundation calls for scholarship applications in the following theme:

Governmental Stability in Central Europe – Trends, Opportunities, Challenges

The scope of the research program is the development of a complex report on the governmental stability of 12 Central European countries. Current proposal invites Central European researchers to take part in creating the report with their oral and written analyses. The program aims to examine different factors of governmental stability with special focus on the following ones:

- public opinion on government
- unity within the government
- cooperation of coalition parties
- government – opposition relation
- constitutional framework
- media image of the government

Countries to analyze

Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czechia, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia

End of the implementation period

31 December 2021

Maximum budget of the grant

16 000 000 HUF

Deadline for application and formal criteria of submission

Deadline for application: 31 December 2021

Submission of the applications via email to: alapitvany@nezopontintezet.hu

A valid application shall contain the following documents as attachments in Hungarian or English language:

- Curriculum Vitae
- Motivation letter that indicates which country/countries the applicant would like to examine and the professional background that enables a thorough analysis of the examined country/countries with a specialist's knowledge and the requested amount of scholarship (length: one page – up to 3000 characters)

NÉZŐPONT INTÉZET

Evaluation of the applications

The list of supported scholarships is decided by the President of the Foundation.
Evaluation of the applications is based on their professional content.

Deadline of evaluation of the applications

31 December 2021

Nézőpont Intézet Foundation reserves the right to assign less than the maximum budget.

23 February 2021